THINKING OF GOING TO UNIVERSITY NEXT YEAR?

Why not join the FREE Bridging and Transition subject (BTP008) offered by UOW for Certificate IV students.

Our Bridging and Transition subject (BTP008) is an eight week program designed to give a crash course in academic skills, or as we like to call it 'how to 'Uni''.

During your eight weeks you are enrolled as a UOW student and will attend your subject classes at your local UOW campus. As a UOW student you have full access to all of the facilities of the university and will have the opportunity to interact with many of the support services and processes that you may need once you start studying at university.

Participants in BTP are also eligible to apply for Equity Scholarships to support their transition to UOW.
